The federation of the various organizations of railway employes is one of the most important labor movements of recent years. The railroad men of the United States number more than 1,000,000, and if they become solidly organized they ought to be able to exert a large amount of influence in the direction of their desires.

The canning industry has grown to immense proportions in various parts of the country, and farmers devote many acres to growing fruits and vegetables especially for the canning factories. The number of acres and the yield of peas, beans, green corn and other vegetables and fruits grown for this purpose will form special and interesting features of the new census.

EMERSON WILLIAM seriously objects to being started at, particularly at church. He has issued a cabinet order in which he says that "until the moment I enter church until I leave hundreds of eyes are at my great annoyance, fixed on me. I desire at least to be able to sit myself for a few moments at divine service Sundays. All those who desire to look at me can do so during my rides in the Thiergarten or Unter den Linden."

WHEN Queen Victoria travels by rail a pilot-engine is run fifteen minutes in advance of the royal train throughout the entire journey, and no other train or car is allowed to run on or across the line during an interval of thirty minutes from the time of its passage. Between the appearance of the pilot and that of her majesty's train no cars are allowed to run on the opposite track. All crossing gates where no gateman is kept are locked an hour before the train is due, and its progress is telegraphed from station to station.

STUDENTS of heredity have earnestly sought for some evidence that mutilations might be transmitted to progeny. Darwin notes that various races of men have knocked out their upper teeth, distorted the lobes of their ears, their lips and their nostrils and in other ways disfigured themselves without producing any malformation of the children born to them as parents. Prof. Weismann cut off the tails of 900 white mice for successive generations, but in spite of his industry they all continued to be born with full sized tails.

Decorated with Brown Paper
When the late Cornelius Vanderbilt built his summer residence at Hartford at an expense of over $100,000 the decorators covered the walls of his dining room with ordinary brown paper, such as is used by butchers to wrap meat in. There was a cherry wood dado and a rich frescoed frieze. This room was considered one of the handsomest in the wealthy town.—New York Sun.

One of the highly favored of has just captured a portion of the cap prize in The Louisiana State Lottery, held a part of ticket No. 21,303 in the drawing entitling him to one-twentieth the capital prize, $300,000, and consequently a winner to the extent of $15,000. The lucky man is A. S. Anderson, No. 203 W. Indiana St. Anderson declares himself as particularly pleased at the promise with which his ticket was cashed. Within a week of the day of the drawing he was to draft through the Western Trust Company, of Chicago, on the Chicago National Bank which was honored by the bank immediately on presentation. Another reason for his pleasure was that he had the name and address of the man who shares the lucky turn of the wheel could not be obtained—Chicago (Ill.) Merchants' Trust May 10.

looking, graceful, and well-mannered reporter of this town. He rendered her some of the help of his day, by giving after her wraps, not knowing it. When they arrived on the scene of the ceremonies, Mrs. Sprague was late, and accompanied by her daughter, held on to her escort and the young man was pleased and astonished to find the lady in charge surrounded by the most distinguished men present, including foreign notables as well as many well-known public men of this country. She stood by her escort, however, and introduced him to everybody. After the close of the ceremony, some hours later, parted with him the most friendly terms."

Judge Fleming was in Wadena yesterday on legal business.

Judge Holland has been holding court at Wadena this week.

Get a quart of ice cream at Ford's when you go home to supper.

C. P. Wright has offered his place for sale and when he can find a buyer will go East.

The wind of Wednesday night blew down the mammoth circus bill board on Sixth street.

Mrs. F. W. Krause, a sister of Mrs. A. F. Ferris, is in the city visiting from Ireton, Iowa.

Frank Matteson and family have gone to Spokane Falls to reside. They left on Tuesday.

The members of Co. K will leave for Lake City on Sunday night where they will go into camp for ten days.

The mayor gives it out cold that circus fakes will not be tolerated, nor street gambling of any description.

Memorial Day was observed in this city in a fitting manner, and there were more people in attendance at the exercises than on any previous similar occasion in the city's history.

Harry Patterson and D. Archibald, of Deerwood, Smith Gray, of Oak Lawn, and Wm. A. Prentice, of Fort Ripley, will enumerate the country population of Crow Wing county.

Let every business house on the principal streets be decorated during the Frenchie Convention. It will be a long time before as large a body of strangers will be in your city.

First Congregational church, Sunday morning subject, "A Sermon for Children." Sunday School at 11:45. Y. P. S. C. E. at 7:00. Children's concert in the evening, subject "Floral Crown." Decoration, "Arch of Character."

Col. Canfield has things in readiness to start a newspaper at Grand Rapids and expects to get out the first issue next week. The Colonel is a boomer from way back and is a member of the Brainerd syndicate which is operating in that vicinity.

This region has been deluged with rain during the past week, and the water in the streams has raised to such an extent that every log will be gotten out. Vegetation is in an advanced state and everything is promising for a prosperous season for the farmers.

Arrangements have been made with the Northern Pacific railroad company so that delegates who arrive on the night trains will be carried in special cars by the way of Staples without paying the extra charge from Staples to Brainerd. It was expected that the new time card would be in force by that time but as such is not the case the company have kindly made this reduction.

Rev. C. H. Treglawney, pastor of the M. E. church, begins next Sunday evening a series of pictorial sermons illustrated with large pulp paintings. Subject, "Wise and Foolish." 1. The march of the ten. 2. The strange sleep by the way. 3. The startling midnight cry. Morning service at 10:30, subject, "Peter's Plunder." The public is invited.

The Original Fisk Jubilee Singers have announced June 14th as their date in this city, and a rare treat their visit will be. This is the troupe that has sung before the Queen of England and in all the courts of Europe. It is the original company and is composed of trained artists. It has been on a trip along the Pacific coast and is now returning east, and by great good luck one day has been secured for Brainerd. Our citizens will no doubt appreciate the opportunity.

The Census Enumerators.

The census enumerators for this city have been appointed and are already at work. The first ward is under the supervision of Chas. Cross, the second under D. H. Simons, the third under D. H. Simons, the fourth under Chas. B. Thompson, and the fifth is being taken by H. Theviot.

On Monday night the advance agent for Robinson's circus was robbed of a silver watch and $35 in cash at the Arlington hotel. He left his door open and the robbery took place while the circus man was sleeping.

F. W. Wieland and wife and Miss May Gleason start for Washington, D. C., to-day. The trip with the Editorial Association will certainly be a very pleasant one, as the Minnesota contingent have made every arrangement for the entertainment in the Capitol City. Ten days will be occupied in going and coming and viewing the sights.

The Commencement Exercises.

The exercises of the graduating class of the high school took place at the Congregational church on Saturday evening, and a large number of friends of the graduates were present. Miss Hattie Gibson and Miss Daisy Badaux constituted the class and their efforts were certainly commendable. The essay of the former was on "The World's Debt to America," and the latter on "Reserved Power," and both were papers worthy of reproduction if space in these columns would permit. The programme previously arranged was carried out in an interesting manner. The following has been handed us for publication in connection with the above:

The following presents were tendered Miss Hattie Gibson on Saturday last on the occasion of her graduation:

Basket of flowers and $10 in gold by the guests at Mrs. Gibson's.

Gold pen from Miss Amy Lowey.

Basket of flowers from Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ames, St. Paul.

Bouquet of flowers from Wm. G. Percy.

Gold watch and chain, case set in diamonds, from her brother.

"Ben Hur" nicely bound, from Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Reynolds.

Roller gold collar pins from Baby Caboot.

Book of poems, Miss Lizzie Somers.

A Romantic Marriage.

The hero of the following article, taken from the Minneapolis Tribune, was formerly in business in this city, and the article will be read with interest by many of his acquaintances:

Three years ago Leopold Metzger, and Mollie Jacobs, aged 22 and 14 respectively, eloped to Hudson and were married. The parents of the girl, Mr. and Mrs. S. Jacobs, were naturally wrathful and talked of shooting, scandal, horsewhipping and the like, but finally all concluded to take a common sense view of the matter. The parents argued that Mollie was too young to enter upon the duties of a wife and that she needed a mother's guardianship and care, and they proposed that the girl was to remain under the parental roof for three years and become a child once more. The husband might be her accepted suitor, and when the three years elapsed as they did yesterday afternoon, the young couple might then be remarried at home. The young couple consented and both remained faithful to the promise made before the Huron justices of the peace. Yesterday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Leopold Metzger again promised to be man and wife and hereafter will be known to the world as such.

Metzger is a jeweler and for some time managed a jewelry store on Nicollet Avenue, between 6th and 7th streets, but recently he went into partnership with his father-in-law, at 219 Washington Avenue south. Last night Mr. and Mrs. Metzger left on an eastern trip, to be absent about three weeks. Upon their return they will be at home at the Holmes Hotel.

Gull River News.

Such welcome rains!

Quite a number of our people spent memorial day in Brainerd.

Mr. McEwin has the measles and is receiving the sympathy of his friends.

Mr. S. J. Hall was at home last week for a short visit.

Work on our new bridge is progressing rapidly.

Sylvan lake is as attractive as ever if we may judge from the number of visitors going there.

School closed last Thursday with very pleasant exercises, and teachers and pupils are free to take needed rest. Miss Barrett was presented with a beautiful silver gold-lined cup and saucer, a silver fruit knife and silver button-hook by her pupils.

Mr. Ruffee is able to be about again after a very serious attack of erysipelas.

Mr. and Mrs. Moore, of Ft. Ripley, visited with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Moores last Friday and Saturday.

THE ROMAN HIPPODROME.

John Robinson and His Ten Combined Shows Coming to Brainerd June 13th.

One of the features of the great Robinson shows are the wonderful races which take place on the vast hippodrome track. They embrace two and four-horse chariot races, flat races, standing races, break neck steeple chases, ludicrous sack, wheelbarrow and obstacle races, camel and elephant races, greyhound races, donkey races, ostrich races, giraffe races in sulkeys, monkey races, children's flat, hurdle, pony, donkey, jockey, fat and chariot races, male and female jockeys and charioteers. Over sixty thoroughbred horses and miniature shetland ponies and scores of male and female jockeys and boy and girl riders take part in these wonderful and exciting races.
